Confidentiality Agreement

In consideration of my acceptance of the invitation to attend the Industrial Advisory Board (IAB) Meeting of the NSF I/UCRC Center for Atomically Thin Multifunctional Coatings (from here on the center) on November 19-20, 2024, hosted by Boise State University at the Center for Advanced Energy Studies (CAES), Idaho Falls, Idaho, I, _____, as a representative of _____, agree that I will keep the information I gather at this meeting confidential. Here ‘information’ shall mean all data and material presented, disclosed, or discussed with the intent that it is for the privilege of the current membership of the center. That is, I will not, without prior consent of the center Directors, disclose any details, in whole or in part, other than to help company administrators decide if my company should become a member of the center. Further, I agree that at the conclusion of my participation in this meeting, I will delete all materials representing unpublished research proposals or results, that I recorded or saved during the meeting presentations. I understand that as my company gives serious consideration to joining the center, we may request from the directors, executive summaries of relevant presentations.
